Melbourne Business School

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE

Graduation

Formal Celebration

CLASS OF 2026

Message from the Dean

On behalf of Melbourne Business School, congratulations on your remarkable achievement.

Graduation is a moment to celebrate the journey that brought you here. Earning a qualification from Melbourne Business School requires ambition, perseverance and a willingness to challenge yourself. You have balanced competing priorities, embraced new ideas and grown as a leader. You should be immensely proud of what you have accomplished. As you graduate in 2026, you do so at a time of profound change. Advances in technology, shifting global markets and evolving societal expectations are reshaping the way we live and work. While the future may be uncertain, it is also rich with possibility. The organisations and communities that thrive will be those led by people who can think critically, adapt quickly and lead with integrity and purpose.

Throughout your time at Melbourne Business School, you have developed the skills, confidence and networks to do just that. More importantly, you join a global community of alumni who are creating impact across industries, sectors and geographies.

While your studies may be complete, your connection with the School is only beginning. We look forward to staying connected, celebrating your successes and welcoming you back throughout your career.

Today, take time to celebrate with those who have supported you along the way and reflect on how far you have come. We are incredibly proud of your achievements and excited to see the difference you will make in the years ahead.

Professor Jenny George

Dean, Melbourne Business School

Guest speaker

Ahmed Fahour AO is the Group Chief Executive Officer of GURNER™ Group.

With over 35 years of experience, he has held executive roles in banking, financial services, consulting, and postal services. Notable positions include CEO at Latitude Financial, Australia Post & NAB, and a Partner at Boston Consulting Group.

Ahmed has served on a range of listed and private boards across Australia, the Middle East and Asia, including Nasdaq Dubai, Aramex, Sai Cheng Logistics, Rip Curl, Pro-Pac Packaging and MLC. He was recently an Independent Non-Executive Director of Australia's $15 billion National Reconstruction Fund and is currently Chairman of Victoria's Premier's Business Council.

Beyond business, he has contributed to strengthening multicultural engagement in Australia, including serving as Australia's Special Envoy to the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation and as a founding director of the Islamic Museum of Australia.

Ahmed was appointed an Officer of the Order of Australia in 2017 for distinguished service to business and to the community. He holds an economics degree with honours from La Trobe University and an MBA from the University of Melbourne.

Thesis

Capturing Heterogeneous Asymmetries: Bayesian Skew-t Distributions and Copulas.

Supervisor

Michael Stanley Smith

Worapree Maneesoonthorn

Citation

Whose thesis proposes new and more accurate statistical models of multivariate dependence, along with innovative scalable approaches for their estimation using large datasets. The new methodology has many potential applications, and its impact is demonstrated in econometric forecasting and financial portfolio construction, where significant improvements in performance are observed.

Gaomin Liu

Thesis

Balancing reinforcement, exploration and optionality: Firm strategies in the incubation of emerging industries.

Supervisor

Glenn Hoetker

Douglas Dow

Citation

Who studied how firms make strategic technology decisions under extreme uncertainty during the incubation of emerging industries. She showed that firms balance capability-based commitments with diversification to keep options open. Her research advances theory on industry emergence and provides practical guidance for managers and policymakers navigating major technological transitions.

Weiben Zhang

Thesis

Variational Inference for Large Mixed Models.

Supervisor

Michael Stanley Smith

Worapree Maneesoonthorn

Citation

Who studied new statistical methods for analysing complex and large datasets in fields including finance and consumer behaviour. The new methods developed help deliver more accurate results with reduced computing time than previously, improving empirical analysis and enhancing decision making.

Congratulations to the Class of 2026!

Completing your MBA is a remarkable achievement and reflects the commitment, resilience, and curiosity you have demonstrated throughout your studies. As you move into the next stage of your careers, I encourage you to remain curious, question your assumptions, and never stop learning.

Based on the evidence available, I am 99.99% confident that your future success will be both substantial and statistically significant!

Kannan Sethuraman

Congratulations to the Class of 2026.

You should be very proud of what you have achieved. An MBA asks a great deal of you, not only in the classroom, but in balancing study with work, family and the many other demands on your time. Reaching this point is worth celebrating.

I hope your time at MBS has given you more than frameworks, tools and a qualification. I hope it has made you more curious, more willing to question assumptions, and more comfortable dealing with problems where there is no obvious right answer. In my experience, those are often the problems that matter most.

I also hope you take with you the friendships you have made, the conversations and debates you have had, and the many moments of humour that make the MBS experience what it is.

It has been a real privilege to teach many of you. One of the pleasures of teaching at MBS is that the learning is never one way. The experience, judgement and different perspectives that students bring into the classroom have taught me a great deal over the years, and your cohort has been no exception.

Enjoy this moment. You have worked hard for it. I wish you success in whatever you choose to do, but also the good judgement to recognise what is worth doing.

I hope our paths cross again.

Warmest congratulations!

Geoff Martin

Professor

A huge congratulations to you all. It was a privilege to be part of your MBA, and of this stage in your lives.

I want to remind you how significant this milestone is. For me, an MBA completely changed the course of my career and my life. You have just made a major investment in your careers and in yourselves, and I am sure it will repay you many times over. When I look at MBS classes from ten or more years ago, it is rare to find graduates who are not now in very senior positions. You will get there too. You have all the ingredients in place.

So please set really ambitious goals. Look for tailwinds in the industries you choose and find organisations that value you and whose work you can be passionate about.

Please also take care of yourselves along the way. Keep investing in your personal development and your wellbeing. Explore the positive psychology literature and podcasts. Stay healthy and invest in the relationships that matter.

We hope to keep you in our orbit, so please stay connected. If you reach a decision point and want to bounce ideas around, I would love to hear from you.

With best wishes!

Onur Özgür

Associate Professor

Congratulations, Class of 2026! It has been an absolute joy and a privilege to be part of your academic journey at MBS.

Thank you for bringing your diverse lived experiences, sharp insights, and unwavering stamina to our sessions—even when we were unpacking complex cases late into the evening. You have lived and breathed opportunity cost over the past few years, balancing life, work, and study with incredible grace. While the school prides itself on selecting top talent, your success is entirely a testament to your personal resilience, drive, and phenomenal capabilities.

You leave us today with an advanced executive toolkit, a global perspective, and perhaps most importantly, a lifelong network of friends and future collaborators. Go out there, challenge conventional wisdom, and drive highly profitable, ethical change.

Please stay in touch—I have no doubt your future endeavours will be remarkable, and I look forward to witnessing your wonderful journeys unfold.

My warmest wishes to you all!

VOTED BY THE SENIOR EXECUTIVE MBA STUDENTS

Don O'Sullivan

Professor

Congratulations to the kindest cohort.

You completed SEMBA while continuing to lead organisations, manage teams, look after families, and occasionally pretend the pre-reading was entirely under control. I am in awe.

We are all honoured to have been part of your journey. Enjoy this achievement—you have well and truly earned it.

What you have built together matters too: the friendships, the generosity, the encouragement and the shared experience of getting through something demanding together.

I look forward to seeing what you do next, and to MBS taking a disproportionate share of the credit.

Stay in touch—with one another and with the School.
