MELBOURNE BUSINESS SCHOOL
EXECUTIVE EDUCATION PROGRAMS 2016

POSITIVE LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

mbs.edu
WELCOME TO THE WORLD CLASS
Leadership in the 21st century rests in the ability to cultivate resilience, adaptivity and innovation within individuals, teams and the workplace as a whole.

This program explores the emerging area of Positive Leadership, drawing on the academic disciplines of Positive Psychology and Organisational Behaviour. It explores different ideas about what ‘positive’ means and why it matters, and investigates strategies for Exceptional Leadership.

PROGRAM SNAPSHOT

Workshop duration: 2 days
2016 dates: 8-9 March
Location: Carlton campus
Program fee: A$2,800 (GST incl.)
Program directors: Associate Professor Adam Barksy | Associate Professor Lea Waters

Note: This program is non-residential. The program fee covers tuition and meals during the workshop.

Enrol now: mbs.edu/pld
WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

• Senior decision-makers with at least 10 years of leadership experience
• High-level executives, looking to develop strategic decision-making ability

KEY BENEFITS

• Understand the key concepts of positive leadership
• Examine your own and others’ positive leadership attributes
• Apply techniques to enable well-being and change in the workplace
• Develop a plan for improving leadership abilities in the future

PROGRAM JOURNEY

Pre-workshop preparation
• A study guide with readings and cases is provided before the workshop commences.

Workshop
The following key themes are explored:
• What is Positive Leadership?
• Leading individuals and teams with Positive Leadership
• The four, key enablers of positive deviance, effective change and employee wellbeing

ACCREDITED PATHWAY

You may undertake this program in an assessed mode, leading to an accredited Specialist Certificate from the University of Melbourne. The Specialist Certificate provides the flexibility to tailor your course to your specific developmental needs by choosing from a select range of open programs.

Award
• Specialist Certificate in Leadership
• Specialist Certificate in Leadership (Professional Services)
• Specialist Certificate in Leadership (Facilities Management)

Assessments
• A 2,500-word assignment on the effectiveness of personal positive leadership development and development of positive practices in a selected firm (worth 100%)

Fee
If you undertake this program in an assessed mode, the fee is A$3,000 (GST exempt) and covers tuition and meals during the workshop.

More information
Visit mbs.edu/specert for more information including the course structure, entry requirements and to apply online.
Associate Professor Adam Barsky

Adam is an Associate Professor in the Department of Management and Marketing at the University of Melbourne and has held visiting positions at New York University and Università de Pompeu Fabra in Barcelona. His research focuses on ethical and risky decision-making, organisational justice and emotions in the workplace.

Read Adam’s full profile at mbs.edu/pld

Professor Lea Waters

Lea is internationally recognised for her expertise in the areas of Organisational Change, Organisational Psychology and Positive Psychology. She is an academic and registered psychologist, with a PhD in Organisational Psychology. She is also a Director of the Master in School Leadership at the Melbourne Graduate School of Education (MGSE), University of Melbourne, and was awarded the MGSE’s Teaching Excellence Award in 2011.

Read Lea’s full profile at mbs.edu/pld