

SENIOR EXECUTIVE MBA

$50,000 DEAN'S SCHOLARSHIP FOR WOMEN AND MANAGEMENT

ELIGIBILITY

Women in senior executive roles.

STATUS

For students commencing the Senior Executive MBA program.

DESCRIPTION

Melbourne Business School has a strong commitment to providing executive development opportunities to women, and to encouraging their participation in advanced programs. The Dean's Scholarship for Women and Management will be awarded to an outstanding candidate for the Senior Executive MBA program. The recipient will demonstrate significant professional achievement, authentic leadership skills and the capacity to excel in a dynamic and challenging academic environment.

AWARD

The Dean's Scholarship for Women and Management is worth AUD$50,000. It will be awarded as a partial tuition fee waiver granted in equal instalments over the duration of the program.

PROCEDURE

Application for the Dean's Scholarship for Women and Management follows submission of a formal application to the Senior Executive MBA program. Once a completed program application is received, the Scholarship application form can be requested from the Executive MBA Programs office. The application will require brief responses to questions on professional achievement, personal motivation and contribution to the program.

TIMELINE

Applications to this scholarship close: 30 November.

Tel: +61 3 9349 8413 | emba@mbs.edu

Recipient of the 2017 Dean's Scholarship for Women and Management

Mardi Steere | Class of 2018
Pediatric Emergency Physician
AIC Kijabe Hospital, Kenya

Recipient of the 2016 Dean's Scholarship for Women and Management

Nicole Cook | Class of 2017
Managing Director, Australia and New Zealand
PeopleScout

Recipient of the 2015 Dean's Scholarship for Women and Management

Debra O'Brien | Class of 2016
Assistant Director, Department of Emergency Medicine
Cabrini Health

Recipient of the 2014 Dean's Scholarship for Women and Management

Rachel Audigé | Class of 2015
Director, BrandExpansion Pty Ltd

mbs.edu/SEMBA